

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 6th, 1890.

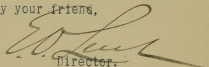

My dear Colonel:

Permit me to thank you for the very handsome medal of myself which was handed me by Mr. Barber this morning.

If entirely agreeable to you I should like a few more copies at your leisure for presentation to my personal friends.

Mr. Barber had two sittings with the Secretary today and may remain over a day or two for more. I think the likeness of the Secretary remarkably good.

Very truly your friend,

Director.
